

ROSE AND CROWN AT SLALEY

WITH SATNAV : Use postcode NE47 0AA to travel directly to the Rose and Crown

WARNING: ROUTE FROM HEXHAM IS UNSUITABLE FOR TRAILERS & HGVs

If you have a caravan or commercial vehicle, please avoid Linnels Bridge; it's very narrow, has weight restrictions and sharp bends at each end. Use the bus route A695 to Dilston, turn Right to keep on A695, then in 200 metres turn Right into B6307 and follow Slaley signs.

NORTH ON A68

Turn Left half a mile after Carterway Heads and the Manor House; It's signed "Slaley". Turn Left again at the T junction. Continue past Slaley Hall, then 1.5 miles to Slaley village, with Rose and Crown in the centre. If you miss the first turning off the A68, take next Left at Kiln Pit Hill.

SOUTH ON A68

Straight under the A69 into Corbridge. Cross river Tyne on stone bridge then at roundabout turn Right onto Hexham road and in quarter of a mile after railway crossing turn Left on the A695. In 200 metres turn Right onto B6307 and follow Slaley signs.

WEST ON A69

Take the B6531 just after A69 becomes a dual carriageway. Keep on main road into Hexham. In centre of Hexham at bottom of Battle Hill turn Right at Tap & Spile PH on to B6306 (Eastgate). For cars keep on this road (no turns) and it will take you over Linnels Bridge and up to Slaley. For caravans and HGVs continue through Hexham on the A695 to Dilston and follow Slaley signs.

EAST ON A69

You can either turn south on A68 then follow Slaley signs or go via Corbridge or Riding Mill.
